Looks like we made it in one piece. Smooth moves, dudes.

A sincere thank you from RebelSkum:

Welcome to the re-grouped #Pizzagate Wiki! May we continue to deliver unprecedented investigative documentation on once obscure facts about crimes and potential abuses of power conducted by governments around the World. Together with brave anons, white hats, wizards, autists, and the occasional Plebbitors and /b/astards we will always be watching The Powers That Be and will always speak out for those who cannot. Using facts and real, sourced news as well as honest discussion we can collectively solve perhaps the greatest and most secret crime spree ever committed.

Keep your facts straight, nose clean, and chin up!

The Wiki has moved from The Pizzagate Review in light of increasingly severe spam and DDoS attacks. The original team has stayed together, but this domain is administrated by yours truly, User:RebelSkum. Pretty much everything will remain as it was, fact-based investigative content, but we will be more able to respond to future attacks and have some extra resources at our disposal.

Thank you all for your support! RebelSkum
